LAKE COUNTY, CA – This Friday, October 19, is the deadline to register to attend the upcoming regional cultural and heritage tourism workshop, which will be held on October 26, 2007, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., at the newly renovated special events center at The Lodge at Blue Lakes.

The workshop, titled “Growing Partnerships into Driving Itineraries,” is being presented by the California Cultural and Heritage Tourism Council, the North Coast Tourism Council, and the Lake County Marketing Program.

This is the third in a series of North Coast Regional Cultural Heritage Tourism Workshops. The day’s agenda will feature a welcome by Denise Rushing, Lake County District 3 Supervisor, and several notable speakers: Jonelle Norton, California Travel & Tourism Commission; Ray Murray, National Park Service/National Heritage Area; Emily De Falla, Executive Director, Coastwalk; Rebecah Morris, Oregon Coast Visitors Association/Oregon Coast Birding; Karen Killebrew, Nature Media, Arts, Heritage & Agriculture Tourism; and Hawk Rosales, InterTribal Sinkyone Wilderness Council.

Those involved in the tourism industry, including hospitality, culture, arts, history/heritage, ecotourism, and agritourism, in the five-county North Coast region (Lake, Del Norte, Humboldt, Mendocino, and Sonoma counties) are all encouraged to attend. The workshop promises to be an excellent opportunity for cross-county collaboration and networking.
